

Information dissemination:

Information dissemination on the availability of learning materials, qualification designs, skills programme (part qualification) designs, important events in the statutory structures, and advice on training problems and procedures in general. This is conducted by way of newsletters, electronic mail, reports at regional meetings and workshops, office based advisory services and articles in industry publications.

Click to return to Nature & Purpose Diagram

